

Best hotel by miles

BEALES Hotel, Hatfield has been awarded four-star status by the AA. The new hotel scored so well that it is now the highest rated four-star hotel, on the A1 corridor, from London to Yorkshire.

'I had every faith that Beales Hotel would achieve four stars. All of our team have worked extremely hard, since we opened in October last year, to ensure exceptional standards of service for guests and visitors,' said managing director Andrew Beale. 'We are extremely pleased to have scored so highly, this means we are the best four-star hotel from London to

Yorkshire, quite an achievement!'

Beales Hotel formed a unique partnership with the University of Hertfordshire to commission modern art which is displayed throughout the hotel. This collaboration has now extended to the Music Department with talented young musicians performing at the hotel every Thursday evening. ■
