COMPETITION

TREAT your mum to an extra-special Mother's Day gift with our fabulous competition that is sure to put you in her good books until next year.

We have teamed up with West Lodge Park in Hadley Wood to offer one lucky winner and his or her mum the chance to win a beauty treatment each, a three course dinner at the hotel's excellent Cedar Restaurant, overnight accommodation in a twin room plus full English breakfast.

Set in more than 30 acres of lawns, open parkland and woods, West Lodge Park dates back to the 1400s and was used by various members of the royalty. King Henry VIII stayed at the lodge with his Queen, Catherine of Aragon, during a hunting trip. Charles I was the last monarch recorded to have stayed there.

The four-star hotel has its own arboretum featuring more than 800 varieties of trees and shrubs, including national collections of hornbeams and elaeagnus. The hotel itself has 59 individually decorated en suite rooms boasting views of the arboretum or over open fields.

Its award-winning Cedar Restaurant is run by executive head chef Wayne Turner where he cooks up such delicacies as Denham Estate loin of venison, pan fried sea bass and Shetland king scallops.

To complete the service, the hotel has its own Safiya beauty rooms, offering a range of Elemis treatments to help you relax and unwind. These include facials, massages, wraps and stone therapies as well as manicures, pedicures, waxing treatments, eyelash and eyebrow tints and St Tropez tanning.

For your chance to win, simply answer the question below by February 28 and send it on a postcard with your name, address and telephone number to West Lodge Park competition, Limited Edition magazine, Loudwater Mill, Station Road, High Wycombe, Bucks HP10 9TY.

Who was the last monarch to stay at the lodge?

Mark your entry "no mailing list" if you don't want your details passed on. The prize is subject to availability and cannot be taken on a Sunday. The prize winners can choose one treatment each from either an Elemis massage, facial, pedicure or manicure to the value of £40 each.
