Spring is here, and with lighter evenings just around the corner to lift the spirits, it's the perfect time to unwind after a bleak winter. Whether you are seeking a secluded haven or a contemporary retreat to enjoy fabulous food and entertainment then visit one of the Beales Hotels. Beales Hotels is one of Hertfordshire's longest running family businesses, with a tradition of quality and service second to none. Established in 1769, the company owns two highly rated four star hotels in Hertfordshire.

West Lodge Park Hotel, Hadley Wood, is an exceptional Regency style hotel with a history dating back to the fifteenth century. A secluded haven, the hotel set within beautiful grounds, the perfect fantasy wedding location. On Sunday March 6th brides-to-be are invited to tour the hotel, visiting the four poster bedrooms and gardens while enjoying a glass of bubbly. The day is free and there is no need to book in advance. For a lovely Mother's Day treat book a table at West Lodge Park for Mothering Sunday on April 3rd. Choose from a mouth-watering three course menu, with coffee and chocolates, plus there is a gift for Mum. Alternatively try the Champagne Afternoon Tea, indulge in clotted cream scones and dainty sandwiches and then walk off the calories in the grounds. The gardens are a joy to explore, and for those booking lunch on Easter Sunday there is an Easter Egg Hunt held in the grounds for children. With 35 acres, it may take some time!

If your tastes are classical then the Concert Dinner Evenings will appeal. West Lodge Park has been the Hertfordshire venue for classical music dinner concerts for over 35 years, hosting famous names from the music world including Cellist Julian Lloyd Webber. On March 18th the Brodowski String Quartet will be performing, see the hotel website for more details. Beales Hotel, Hatfield is a modern, four star venue inspired by a unique collection of artwork. Bedrooms are furnished with flat screen televisions, natural feather duvets, mounds of pillows, cushions and throws. Guests are wrapped in sumptuous bathrobes and towels, and warmed by underfloor heating. With champagne and cocktails served to guests relaxing in the exotic 'coconut' style chairs (a design icon of the 1960s) the hotel has proved popular as a unique wedding venue, combining chic surroundings with first class service. A mural depicting a forest at night adorns the walls of the hotel restaurant, where guests can choose from a mouth watering menu. Beales Hotel is laying on a special menu for Mothering Sunday and Easter, with three courses for under £30 per person. Dishes include salmon with creme fraiche tartare, roast Sirloin of Hertfordshire beef and Bramley apple crumble with honeycomb ice cream.
