

Diego launches new spring menu 'on air'

Beales Hotel Head Chef Diego Granada launched his new menu 'on air' appearing on BBC 3 Counties Weekend Kitchen.

Award winning Diego served his fellow presenters a delicious selection of dishes :

Seared scallops, wilted spinach and a tomato consomme;

Chicken and smoked bacon ballotine with a devilled sauce;

White chocolate mousse with a berry milkshake and citrus biscotti.

Diego, 33, came to the UK from Columbia 14 years ago with nothing but a backpack and has worked his way up and through every area of kitchen service, finally achieving his culinary dream by becoming Head Chef with Beales Hotel in Hatfield.

Radio presenter Nick Coffer and other guests sampled the dishes and quizzed Diego for cooking tips during the two hour show.

"It was a real challenge cooking in a such a small studio kitchen, but a fun experience and an unusual way to launch our new menu," said Diego.

To help celebrate the new Spring menu Beales Hotels are offering a free bottle of sparkling wine with lunch and dinner, visit www.bealeshotels.co.uk for a printable voucher, terms and conditions.
