

West Lodge Park Hotel is hosting a rare treat for literary fans on Friday 4th February. Charles Dickens' great, great grandson will be reading from a selection of the authors' novels including Oliver Twist and Great Expectations.

Gerald Dickens, himself an actor and director, first developed his 'one man' show back in 1993 with a theatrical performance of A Christmas Carol which was also enacted at West Lodge Park Hotel. Now Gerald has returned with a show focussing on Dickens' child characters involving Oliver, Pip and David Copperfield. He is accompanied by pianist Elizabeth Hayes who helps set the scene with music from the era in which Dickens wrote.
