

Fashion show raises cash for cancer centre

Beales Hotel in Hatfield hosted a fashion show by SuSu of Welwyn. The event raised nearly £2,000 towards the £1m CTRT Appeal for the Mount Vernon Cancer Centre, which provides care to people in Hertfordshire who develop cancer. Women from across the county attended a Champagne reception prior to the show, which also gave them an enjoyable opportunity to browse accessories, shoes and handbags. Susan Bull of SuSu compered the fashion show, which featured real women models from the boutique. They demonstrated how SuSu's range, which comes from a variety of different designers, could be worn to create the greatest impact and an individually elegant style – regardless of body shape. The CTRT Appeal aims to provide the Mount Vernon Cancer Centre with a state-of-the-art facility to improve chemotherapy treatments for people with a wide variety of cancers. The appeal is part of Enhance Herts, the charity supporting patients, staff and hospitals run by the East and North Hertfordshire NHS Trust.

Members of the CTRT Committee, Dave Stuart, Yvonne Chapple, Ann Clark

Models Georgina Bull, Marie Fox, Val Studholme and Susanne Stevens

Joanna Bishop, Jane Millar, Kay Ainsclough, Janet Georgiou

Gloria Nash, Annette Campbell, Tracey Shaw, Georgie Bull

Jen Tiller, Susan Bull of Susu, and event organiser Catherine Farrell

Jill Ryan, Sue Bannister, Wendy Munro

Yvonne Adams, Susan Bull, Liz Parker